District Community Council

Welcome to Haddington Festival the year of Homecoming Scotland.

This year is such a special year with the celebration of Homecoming Scotland honouring the 250th anniversary of the birth of our Bard Robert Burns. You don't have to be Scottish to celebrate, just come along and enjoy what is on offer. We hope there is something to suit all tastes. Haddington has such a wealth of talent in Art, Music Song and Dance and we at Haddington Community Council cannot thank our community enough for all the help and support given each year at the Festival and feel sure that you will support their events. If you would like to take part in, organise or maybe send in some ideas for the festival then we would be delighted to hear from you. It only remains for us to say to everyone enjoy the Festival and 'be Proud of Haddington'.
